phased manner to be completed by the year 1992. So far 14 States/Union Territories have issued notification banning sale of non-iodised salt. Also 5 States have issued ban notifications in the identified goitre endemic districts. The Delhi Administration have[1] issued notification to ban sale of non-iodised salt in the Union Territory of Delhi w.e.f. 1st June, 1989.

(b) The Government is providing 100 per cent subsidy towards the cost of Potassium Iodate, the chemical used for iodisation of edible salt to the iodised salt manufacturers. Iodised salt i; available in the market at marginally higher prices as compared to those of common salt of similar quality and packing. A quantity of 1.66 lakh tonnes of iodised salt has been supplied to Delhi during 1988.

(c) and (d) The Government of India is not importing iodine for manufacture of iodised salt. However, crude iodine is being imported by actual users on production of essentiality certificate from the salt commissioner under Open General Licence Policy of the Government.
